1. A small molded or sculptured figure; a statuette.

2. [French, from Italian figurina, diminutive of figura, figure, from Latin fig ra]

This special, themed issue of +HIP calls upon the people of The Hague to photograph, sketch, paint or otherwise (re)present figures or figurines in and around the city. These could be statues, dioramas, lego-people, or anything else that can be (or has been) placed in a place or a space with some significance for WAR, peace, JUSTICE, sustainability, CAPITAL.

+HIP IS AN ONLINE, STREET PHOTO-GRAPHICS (photography, art, graphics) MAGAZINE FOCUSED ON LIFE IN THE HAGUE, THE UN CITY OF INTERNATIONAL PEACE & JUSTICE. IT PUBLISHES IMAGES FROM THE STREETS OF THIS COSMOPOLITAN CITY, SUBMITTED BY THE PEOPLE WHO LIVE IN THEM. EACH YEAR, +HIP PUBLISHES AN ANNUAL COLLECTION IN THE FORM OF A LARGE-FORMAT BOOK, AND AWARDS PRIZES FOR THE BEST SUBMISSIONS.
